Students electing to major in European Studies must also complete a second major in Fulbright College. Selection of the second major should be in consultation with an adviser and the Director of European Studies. Freshmen and sophomores considering this program are advised to begin their study of an appropriate foreign language as early as possible.

Requirements for a Major in European Studies:

- EUST 2013 Introduction to Europe
- EUST 4003 European Studies Colloquium (3-6 hours)

Language Requirement: (6 hours of advanced 3000- or 4000-level work)  ________________  ________________

Students must complete the equivalent of a third year of a modern European language, e.g., six hours of advanced 3000- or 4000-level work in French, German, or Spanish. Less commonly taught languages such as Portuguese, Russian, or Italian may be used, subject to the availability of courses. Three to six hours in an approved study abroad program in Europe may substitute for all or part of this requirement. For native speakers of a European language other than English, this requirement is waived.

- Study Abroad: Students who major in European Studies are required to spend at least one semester (Fall or Spring) in an approved international program. Students with a modern European language as their combined major (or minor) may (But are not required to) choose a program in the country of their language specialization. Students without a language combined major or minor are required to attend the University of Arkansas Rome Program for at least one semester. At least 9 and a maximum of 18 hours of credit towards the EUST major may be earned during study abroad. Exemptions to this requirement will be considered case-by-case.

- Electives: Students must complete at least 18 hours of credit, in addition to the language requirement and the European studies colloquium, from the following or in individualized studies under the direction of a faculty participating in the program.
  1. A maximum of nine hours may be submitted from any one department, and
  2. A maximum of six hours may be submitted from courses taken in the student's major department.
