

STUDY ABROAD

Jack J. Reid
Study Abroad Scholarship
Due: Friday, March 17, 2017

This scholarship is given in honor of Dr. Margaret Reid's late husband, Jack J. Reid. Dr. Reid was a professor of comparative politics and international relations at the University of Central Oklahoma before his retirement. His passion was to take student groups to Europe where they would meet with public elected and appointed officials on matters of foreign affairs, social policy, and local issues.

The scholarship is presented annually in the spring semester to an outstanding Political Science undergraduate or graduate student to support costs associated with an international study abroad experience, including but not limited to, tuition, travel, and accommodations.

Applicants must:

- ✓ Be enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree program in the Department of Political Science.
- ✓ Have started the process with the Study Abroad Office to participate in a study abroad experience for at least 3 weeks, preferably associated with an internship or workshop.
- ✓ Must maintain at least a 3.2 GPA.
- ✓ Submit a one-page essay on what applicants hope to learn from their experiences.
- ✓ Submit Jack J. Reid Study Abroad Scholarship Application.

All aforementioned information and material must be submitted to Meredith Brady, mpbrady@uark.edu, Department of Political Science, 428 Old Main, no later than March 17, 2017 by 12:00 pm.

STUDY ABROAD

POLITICAL SCIENCE
D E P A R T M E N T

428 Old Main ♦ 479/575-3356

<https://plsc.uark.edu>

<https://www.facebook.com/UARKplsc>