1. Fayetteville Police Department (Not Paid)

The FPD is looking for 2 interns. This internship consists primarily of riding with officers, but interns can request internship time with the Criminal Investigations Division.

How to apply:

- Print, read, and complete the Liability Waiver and Application, which can be found at (cut and paste into a browser):
  http://sociology.uark.edu/FPD_internship_info_binder.pdf
- Provide a resume
- Return all information in hardcopy to Dr. Shields

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.

2. Washington County Community Corrections (Not Paid)

The Department of Community Corrections works with adults who have been paroled from prison and probationers who’ve been convicted of a felony but not sent to jail. The DCC’s primary functions include monitoring probationers and parolees and aiding these individuals as they try to integrate back into society.

How to apply:

- Contact Jessica Shermacher at 571-7525, or
- email at Jessica.Schermacher@arkansas.gov

POSITIONS FILLED FIRST COME, FIRST SERVE

3. Fayetteville City Prosecutor’s Office (Not Paid)

The Fayetteville City Prosecutor’s Office handles misdemeanors and violations ranging from DWI’s to Shoplifting, and from possession cases to speeding. Interns work with the City prosecutor and office staff preparing cases for trial. The busy office is looking for a diligent and motivated student who is interested in learning more about the legal process of criminal trials.

How to apply:

- Send an electronic version of your resume to cshield@uark.edu

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.
4. Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children (CASA) (Unpaid)

CASA is a state agency that provides advocates for children living in unstable home environments. Interns have two different paths to take in the organization. First, an intern may work with office staff learning the ins and outs of running an state agency. Second, the intern may complete training to become a CASA Advocate him/herself. The training takes several weeks (counted as internship hours) and you will be assigned to work cases yourself, presenting your findings to the court.

How to apply:

- Send an electronic version of your resume to cshield@uark.edu

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.

5. Senator Boozeman’s Office (Unpaid) in Lowell, AR.

Generally, Interns with this busy office answer phones from constituents and help with special projects, as dictated by the Senator’s needs.

How to apply:

- Student with at least 2 years of completed classes, complete the following:
  1. Complete application (found here http://sociology.uark.edu/Boozman_Application_F2011.pdf)
  2. Resume
  3. 2 letters of recommendation
  4. Essay (see attached packet for instructions)
- Mail all material in one envelope to Senator Boozman
  c/o Stacey Mattingly
  213 W. Monroe, Suite N
  Lowell, AR 72745

DEADLINE TO APPLY - none stated. Time is of the essence.
6. Washington County Prosecutor’s Office  (Unpaid)

Interns working with the Washington County Prosecutor’s office typically spend a considerable amount of their internship working with the restitution office. Interns have had the opportunity in the past to observe felony criminal cases, and this internship provides a good opportunity to network with other lawyers.

How to apply:

- Send an electronic version of your resume to cshield@uark.edu

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.

7. Rape Crisis Center  (Unpaid).

There are several positions available this spring. Interns with the RCC go through extensive training to learn how to work with victims of sexual violence. The office staff at the RCC are extremely supportive and I only hear good things from my interns who work there. Interns will be “on call” to answer the hotline phone once or twice a month.

How to apply:

- Send an electronic version of your resume to cshield@uark.edu

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.

8. Washington County Juvenile Court  (unpaid)

Interns with the Washington County Juvenile Court spend a good share of the semester working with juvenile probation officers, directly observing their interaction with parents and juveniles, and working with different programs designed to help juveniles avoid recidivism. Interns also have the opportunity to attend court with Judge Zimmerman.

How to apply:

- send an electronic version of your resume to cshield@uark.edu

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.
9. Terrorism Research Center in Fulbright College (Unpaid)

The TRC is looking for up to 6 analysts to work on various projects through the fall semester. This semester, we are looking for interns who have previously worked in the TRC. Work will include collecting and coding federal court cases involving terrorism trials. Interns will be trained how to code data, how to clean data, and how to operate several software programs, including Oracle. Applicants will have to pass an FBI background check before they begin working on the project.

How to apply:

- Contact Dr. Shields cshield@uark.edu and request an application.
- Complete paper application and waiver
- Submit a resume

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.

10. Washington County Sheriff’s Office.

The Washington County Sheriff’s office generally takes up to 4 interns a semester. Interns are given the opportunity to work with officer in the control room of the Jail and in Dispatch. Interns can also take self-defense classes, go to the shooting range, and take part in training through “part time 2” classes, taught by deputies.

How to apply:

- send an electronic version of your resume to cshield@uark.edu

DEADLINE TO APPLY Friday, March 4, 4pm. Send a resume to cshield@uark.edu.