Students must earn at least 30 degree credit hours numbered 3000 or higher at the University of Arkansas - Fayetteville campus. e.g. MATH 0003; And any duplicate coursework completed where credit hours are counted more than once.

1) No degree credit is awarded for the following: A world language course at the Elementary I (1003) level if the student is not complete two years of a world language in high school; Remedial courses that begin with a '0' in the course number, the University may not present more than 68 lower-level hours (1000 and 2000 level).

6) by departments in Fulbright College at the University of Arkansas - Fayetteville campus, with at least 24 degree credit hours numbered 3000 or higher. A student graduating with a major or minor from Fulbright College must have completed a minimum of 50% of degree credit within the Fulbright College Advising Center.

Note: For art majors, if ARHS 1003 is used to satisfy the Fine Arts university core, then an additional course from that section must be completed.