

Charlotte Eubanks is an Assistant Professor of Comparative Literature, Japanese, and Asian Studies at Penn State. She studies ritualistic and communal aspects of textual engagement, with a focus on Japanese literature from the medieval period to the present. Her first book, entitled Miracles of Book and Body: Buddhist Textual Culture and Medieval Japan (University of California Press, 2011), examines the relationship between human body and sacred text in the Buddhist literary tradition, focusing on reading as a performance-based act which bridges the text-flesh barrier. Her second book project (Archival Memory: Art, Performance, and Visual Culture in Trans-War Japan) moves to the modern period to examine links between visual art, human rights and testimonial narrative. She has articles (published and forthcoming) in ADFL Bulletin, Asian Folklore Studies, Book History, Critical Asian Studies, Harvard Journal of Asiatic Studies, International Journal of the Sociology of Language, Japanese Journal of Religious Studies, PMLA, and Word & Image.
