Center for the Study of Representation

Media & Policy in the Middle East

Dr. Najib Ghadbian

Co-sponsored with the Public Policy Ph. D. Program & the King Fahd Middle East Studies Program

The Center for the Study of Representation (CSR) is a research center located in the Department of Political Science at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Created by the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees in 1999, the CSR is an officially recognized university research center. The CSR receives sponsorship and financial support from the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences and the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville.