Praising Satan from the Pulpit:

Beyond the Stereotypes of Islamic Esoterism

Lecture by

Dr. Omid Safi
Assistant Professor of Islamic Studies at Colgate University

Omid's research focuses on "Path of Love" Muslim mystics from the 11th to the 13th century, such as Rumi, Shams-e Tabrizi, Ayn al-Qazat Hamadani, and Ahmad Ghazali. He is particularly interested in the networks of patronage and devotion between religious and political figures, and the myriad ways in which political situations impacted the frameworks of religious inquiry in that time period.

Friday, April 6 - 2:00 PM
Giffels Aditorium

Sponsored by King Fahad Center for Middle East Studies