PERSONNEL

Cody Lucas is a multi-instrumentalist, composer, budding arranger, and producer. He also works professionally in the health field and is a devoted husband and father. Cody's creative journey is fueled by a diverse range of genre influences, including rock, funk, jazz, hip-hop, electronic, and world music. These influences have shaped his artistic expression both academically and personally. Growing up in the 'Age of Information' has allowed him to draw inspiration from global cultures and appreciate the richness of the human experience in today's world. Whether performing as a solo artist or collaborating as a supporting musician, Cody is dedicated to serving the music, his fellow musicians, and the audience, offering something uniquely his own.

Cody Lucas is student of Dr. Jacob Hertzog
