

Political Science

JANUARY

January 2-11, 2019

INTERSESSION

PLSC 2003-009-13008 – American National Government
Dr. Janine Parry, 9:00am-12:45pm

PLSC 3503-001-13002 – Government Politics of East Asia
Dr. Ka Zeng, 9:00am-12:45pm

PLSC 390V-003-13005 – Mexico's Society & Politics through its Cinematic Lenses, Dr. David Maciel, 9:00am-12:45pm

We will examine the origins, development and prospects of Mexico's contemporary politics, including the role of economic, societal and cultural factors over the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries. Emphasis will focus on globalization and neoliberalism, the rising participation of civil society, the long and complex transition to democracy (from a hegemonic to a pluralist party system), and the challenges facing Mexico's new incoming administration.