

SPRING 2019 - SPECIAL TOPICS

PLSC 390V-002-12554 – Intro to Citizenship Studies

MWF | 3:05–3:55pm, Dr. Shirin Saeidi

We will explore the classic and recent notions of citizenship that have been addressed including specific case studies from both Western and Non-Western contexts.

PLSC 390V-004-13425 – East Asia: Politics & Culture

TuTh | 8:00–9:15am, Dr. Ren Tan

Historically the whole region shared common cultural roots and was tightly connected through cultural exchanges, religious ties, trading networks and sometimes wars.

PLSC 400V-001-12585 – Education Policy

MWF | 9:40–10:30am, Melissa Taylor

Explore the connections between education & the political process in the US. Discuss the different & often competing philosophies that inform education policy decisions.

PLSC 400V-002-12586 – Minority Politics and Policy

M | 6–8:30pm, Dr. Melina Juarez

Analyze American public policy and politics through an intersectional lens, with special focus on race, class, gender, and sexuality.

PLSC 400V-003-13006 – POLITICS ON FILM

W | 2–4:30 pm, Dr. Janine Parry

Come watch, research and discuss classic films like... All the President's Men, The Manchurian Candidate, A Face in the Crowd and many more!