

PLANNED Summer Classes*

P O L I T I C A L S C I E N C E

SUMMER I, MAY 29 – JUNE 29

PLSC 2003-011-2396 – American National Government, 11:00-12:30, Mr. Sullivan

PLSC 2013-011-5555 – Intro to Comparative Politics, 12:45-2:15, Dr. Ghadbian

PLSC 2813-011-5395 – Intro International Relations, 9:15-10:45, Dr. Kelley

PLSC 3523-011-5854 – Politics of the Middle East, 11:00-12:30, Dr. Ghadbian

Survey of the unity and diversity in the political development of the ME, as evident in historical legacies, state formation, civil society, social class, and political identity.

PLSC 3853-011-4608 – American Foreign Policy, 11:00-12:30, Dr. Conge

The structure and process for making and implementing the foreign policy of the United States, and an evaluation of current policies in the contemporary international milieu.

PLSC 4193-011-5326 (U), 5143-011-5332 (G) – Administrative Law, 11:00-12:30,

Dr. Schreckhise ♦ Legal aspects of the administrative process and the effect of legal principles and processes upon administrative decision-making. Emphasis is given to the limitation of administrative discretion and the judicial review of administrative decision.

PLSC 4253-011-2174 (U), 4253-011-2131 (G) – The U.S. Constitution I, 12:45-2:15,

Dr. Schreckhise ♦ An understanding of the United States Supreme Court decisions involving the functions and powers of Congress, The Supreme Court, and the President and federalism.

SUMMER II, JULY 2 – AUGUST 3

PLSC 2003-012-4073 – American National Government, 2:30-4:00, Ms. Naylor

PLSC 2013-002-6466 – Intro to Comparative Politics, 11:00-12:30, Mr. Sullivan

PLSC 2813-012-6502 – Intro International Relations, 9:15-10:45, Dr. Kelley

10-WEEK SUMMER ONLINE

PLSC 2003-901-3496 – American National Government, Nathan Looney

PLSC 2203-901- 7405 – State and Local Government, Dr. Joshua Mitchell

PLSC 3203-901-7159 – Intro to Legal Studies, Zoe Naylor

* NOTE: These classes must meet the minimum enrollment numbers to make.