

INTERESTED IN A CAREER AS AN INTELLIGENCE ANALYST OR IN RESEARCH?

INTERN WITH THE TERRORISM RESEARCH CENTER.

ABOUT THE TRC

The Terrorism Research Center (TRC), located in 101 Old Main, specializes in conducting empirical research on domestic terrorism incidents, providing information to law enforcement and intelligence agencies, and informing homeland security policy.

ABOUT THE INTERSHIP

Interns at the TRC develop a number of valuable and marketable skills while working on a large, relational database concerning terrorists' criminal activities. While at the TRC, students have the opportunity to collect data on offender backgrounds, how terrorists prepare for and conduct attacks, and how they are prosecuted and sentenced. Students across disciplines are encouraged to apply.

FAQS

What are the qualifications?

- willingness to learn about terrorism, crime, and violent extremism
- at least junior status
- basic computer skills
- ability to pass background check
- prior experience with introductory social science and research methods (preferred)

Is the internship paid?

This is an unpaid opportunity, but you can earn SOCI or CRIM course credit.

NOTE: Due to COVID-19, there will be no summer 2020 TRC internships. Fall 2020 internships may require working remotely, dependent on campus protocols and procedures.
