Food Insecurity and COVID-19 in America
Average Percentage of Respondents Reporting Moderate to High Food Insecurity

Average Food Insecurity Among U.S. Respondents = 38.3%

Food Insecure vs. Food Secure Respondents (n= 10,368)

Social Vulnerability

Female
30% Food Insecure
70% Food Secure

Hispanic
50% Food Insecure
50% Food Secure

Nonwhite
43% Food Insecure
57% Food Secure

Unemployed
48% Food Insecure
52% Food Secure

Food Insecure Families with Children = 45%
Food Insecure Respondents with Depression = 67%

NSF SES #2027148
Kevin M. Fitzpatrick, PhD
Casey Harris, PhD
Grant Drawve, PhD

Community and Family Institute
Dept. of Sociology and Criminology
University of Arkansas
kfitzpa@uark.edu